Finding Peace Through Strength

FEBRUARY 2017

Good morning!

This month's edition of our new and improved e-newsletter is all about what Connecticut courts consider when they rule on child custody.

We hope you continue find these newsletters valuable, and if you have any questions about this month's topic (or any family law topic), please reach out to us today.

Have a great day!

WHAT CONNECTICUT COURTS CONSIDER WHEN RULING ON CHILD CUSTODY

Child custody is a central issue in family courts throughout the United States, and Connecticut is no different. Under ideal circumstances, a divorcing couple will negotiate their own agreement regarding custody and visitation, but if the break is a contentious one, chances are that custody will be another matter that they fight over. At that point a judge will have to step in and decide on an arrangement...

TEAM 100 REFERRAL SPOTLIGHT

The McConnell Family Law Group maintains a list of referral resources for our clients. We call this our "Team 100 Referral List." We understand that during the course of a family dispute, our clients often require the services of various professionals in other fields. Please feel free to contact us if you are in need of a referral.

Each month professionals from our Team 100 Referral List are chosen from Fairfield County and Central Connecticut and highlighted in our newsletter. This month, we present Joel Miller:
