Finding Peace Through Strength

MARCH 2017

Good morning!

This month's edition of our e-newsletter highlights the key differences between a collaborative divorce and a traditional litigated divorce. There are advantages and disadvantages to each model and it is important to selectively choose the best course of action for each individual.

We hope you continue find these newsletters valuable, and if you have any questions about this month's topic (or any family law topic), please reach out to us today.

Have a great day!

5 KEY DIFFERENCES BETWEEN COLLABORATIVE AND LITIGATED DIVORCE

Even the most amicable divorces have potentially contentious issues, such as child custody and division of marital assets and debts. Collaborative law is an alternative dispute resolution process that allows you, your spouse, and your respective attorneys to work as a team to resolve them instead of confronting each other in court...

TEAM 100 REFERRAL SPOTLIGHT

The McConnell Family Law Group maintains a list of referral resources for our clients. We call this our "Team 100 Referral List." We understand that during the course of a family dispute, our clients often require the services of various professionals in other fields. Please feel free to contact us if you are in need of a referral.

Each month professionals from our Team 100 Referral List are chosen from Fairfield County or Central Connecticut and highlighted in our newsletter. This month, we present Jim Russell:
